

Teresa Glenn

I am an author, speaker, writer, and mentor. Through each of these, I seek to help women learn ways to rely on Jesus more. My personal website is teresadglenn.com.

Terrell and I have been married for 34 years. Over the course of that time, we have raised 3 children and moved to 7 cities to participate in 7 church works, including planting 2 churches. Since Terrell became a bishop in 2008, it has afforded me the opportunity to engage with many clergy wives around the country. Now, through Call2Disciple, it is a privilege to provide Soul Care for these women and female clergy.
