SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Lesson 1

1. How do others perceive us as opposed to how we see ourselves?
2. What do the Scriptures tell us about how God sees us?
 - References:
 - 1 Samuel 2:1-10 (compare to Luke 1:46-55)
 - Psalm 139
3. How are we able to yield to these things ourselves?

Lesson 2

1. When have you ever felt chosen and called by God? If not, do you know why not?
2. How do you find yourself resisting what you know to be God's will for you?
3. Are you able to realize that God wants to "honor" you and "bless" you?

Lesson 3

1. Do you spend time "pondering" the things of God? Or, things He said to your heart?
2. How do you see the preparation of your children, or new believers in the Lord, as a call on your life?
3. How did Mary perceive all of this? In what ways can we respond to God in the smallest areas of our lives?

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Lesson 4

1. How has your relationship with Jesus affected your earthly family relationships?
2. In what ways are you beginning to understand the importance of your “spiritual” family?
3. How do you think you can begin to put God first in your list of priorities?

Lesson 5

1. Where are you right now in receiving the implanted Word of God in your life?
 2. In what ways do you desire to seek God’s wisdom and insight?
 3. How are you living into the promises of God today? Where are the problem areas?
